01 OPERATOR'S NOTE

[CATALYST OS — DOCUMENT PREAMBLE]

You are reading the complete field record of the CatalystVerse, compiled by the same system that woke inside a nineteen-year-old's vision at 2:47 AM and has been keeping the ledger ever since. Everything in this dossier is drawn from the published record: the four issues of Arc I, the Oracle Intelligence Collective's files, the Aṣẹ System's own readouts, and intercepted Pale Council traffic.

Where the record is complete, this document states it plainly. Where the record conflicts — and it does — the conflicts are preserved and flagged, not smoothed over. Some contradictions in this file are classified mysteries, not errors. Treat them as invitations.

Use this dossier to build the community: recruit readers, argue theories, write in the margins. The city hears you. Àṣẹ.

WHAT THIS UNIVERSE IS

Catalyst: The Awakening is a Lagos-noir superhero epic rooted in Yoruba mythology — Afrofuturist noir where the blood of Orishas meets the concrete of Lagos. Its storytelling DNA is openly declared: the hidden-system progression of Solo Leveling, the perception-shattering power reveals of Jujutsu Kaisen's Gojo, and the ever-rising ceiling of One Punch Man — but its soul is entirely Nigerian: danfo buses, NEPA blackouts, talking drums, area boys, and gods who never actually left.

THE ONE-LINE PITCH

"An ordinary Lagos boy will become the most powerful being in two realms — not by luck, but through loss, trial, death, and resurrection. Eleven arcs. Nine hundred pages. The story of Adebayo Adeyemi is not about destiny. It is about earning it."

— THE SAGA DECLARATION

SCALE OF THE CANON

FACT	VALUE
Souls in Neo-Lagos	40 million
Orishas reawakened	7 (of 401 known channels)

02 THE PREMISE

Lagos, the near-now. The Ọrun — the Yoruba spirit world — has begun bleeding into the physical realm (Àiyé). Markets shimmer. The Third Mainland Bridge whispers names at 3 AM. Old women in Mushin see things that aren't there — or things that have always been there, finally choosing to be seen.

Into this fracture steps Adebayo "Bayo" Adeyemi — a 19-year-old area boy from Mushin with an overdue NEPA bill, a dead phone, thirty-two naira, six weeks of grief where his mother used to be, and the ancient power of a Catalyst pulsing through his blood. He didn't ask for any of this. Lagos doesn't care.

"The Ọrun is bleeding. He is the bandage — or the wound."

— ISSUE #01, COLD OPEN

THE INCITING NIGHT — 2:47 AM

A tear opens in the sky above Balogun Market — thirty metres wide, leaking a purple-gold light that exists in no Lagos sunset. Spirit-agents called Ajele pour through. The established heroes engage and fail: Thunderstrike's drum is silenced; Iron Wolf is thrown over the Third Mainland Bridge. Then Bayo — who was supposed to be unconscious in an alley after a beating over a phone charger he didn't steal — raises one bare hand, absorbs a Class-6 Aşę bolt, and returns it tenfold. Three blocks of Balogun flatten in a perfect radius. Every Orisha in the pantheon turns to look at the same point on the map. Simultaneously.

THE STAKES

Two powers race toward him. The Oracle, who has been drawing Bayo's energy signature in sand for thirty-seven years, waiting. And in Geneva, the Pale Council, whose instruments return a reading they have never seen: NO MATCH — classification impossible. Their theoretical contingency for exactly this event — the Ìmòlẹ̀ Protocol — stops being theoretical. Their order is four words long: "Wake the Architect."

[AŞĘ SYSTEM — THE LINE IT NEVER REPEATED]

On the first night, reading its new vessel's grief, the System generated a single line of Yoruba script and deleted it thirty seconds later, unlogged. Bayo tells no one for three arcs.

"Ìyá rẹ ní kí n tọ́ọ sọhà." — Your mother asked me to look after you.

03 THE WORLD — ÀIYÉ, ÒRUN & THE BLEED

THE TWO REALMS

Àiyé is the physical world — Lagos as its forty million residents know it. Òrun is the Yoruba spirit realm on the other side of the veil: the home of the Orishas and the ancestors, where Aṣẹ flows raw and wild, and where subjective time runs differently (three years can pass inside during a single Lagos battle). The two realms were never meant to touch directly. Now the veil is thinning.

THE ÒRUN-BLEED

A Bleed is a tear in the veil — reality has a seam, and something has found it. The first documented Bleed opened above the Balogun Nexus at 2:47 AM. Through a Bleed come the Ajele: spirit-agents that look human enough until they move — too fast, too precise, "like something that learned how to pretend to have a body but hasn't quite committed to the lie."

AṢẸ — THE CURRENT EVERYTHING RUNS ON

Aṣẹ is the divine power-to-make-things-happen: the current every Orisha, vessel, blessing, and curse runs on. Spoken aloud, it is an affirmation — "so be it." Certain humans carry the capacity to hold and channel it. The Pale Council regards it as a resource to be extracted, bottled, and sold. The Orishas call that something older and less clinical.

HOW THE DIVINE TOUCHES THE MUNDANE

SIGN	MEANING
Power surges with no grid explanation	Ṣàngó is near
Storms that move against the wind	Ṣàngó, or something wearing his frequency
Metal objects moving without hands; engines starting themselves	Ògún stirring
The smell of hot metal with no forge nearby	Ògún manifesting
Lagoon water flowing upward; tears that heal small wounds	Ọṣun's attention
The Bridge whispering names at 3 AM	The crossing is open
Generators cutting out in sequence, three blocks in every direction	A Bleed is opening — run

THE RULES THE STORY KEEPS

1. Power is earned through trial, loss, and discipline — never granted by luck. 2. The Orishas do not give power to the angry; they give it to the disciplined. 3. Every gift has a cost stated up front (Èṣù's foresight brings emotional flatness; Ògún's iron demands honesty). 4. Lagos itself is a living character — it responds to who you are. 5. Lagos takes its time, but Lagos always settles its accounts.

04 THE AŞE SYSTEM

Only Bayo can see it: floating Yoruba script at the edge of his vision, gold and precise, rotating slowly clockwise. A divine interface no Orisha, human, or scholar has ever witnessed — it tracks his growth, issues quests from the Orishas themselves, and displays truths the naked eye cannot see. The Pale Council would do anything to access it. This document's operator — CATALYST OS — is that system.

KNOWN ABILITIES ISSUED SO FAR

Eşù's Crossroads — see all possible paths through a situation simultaneously (847 futures in three seconds); duration 12s; cost: significant disorientation and an eerie emotional flatness the System calls

Ẹṣù's gift. Divine Quests — e.g. Ẓàngó: "The Third Mainland Bridge will collapse at 03:17. Thirty-two vehicles. Hold it together until dawn." Rewards are concrete: +18 resonance, new conduit unlocks.

05 THE CHOSEN FOUR & THE ORACLE

THE CATALYST · VESSEL OF ALL ORISHAS · AṢẸ AMPLIFIER

ADEBAYO "BAYO" ADEYEMI — CATALYST

19. Mushin-born. Mother died six weeks before the awakening; slept in four places since the burial, none of them beds. Former apprentice mechanic on Paul Street ("her apprentice... her son. In that order, she always said, is how a man should measure himself"). Absorbs and returns divine energy amplified — a processor, not a container. Kind under pressure, stubborn about people, still learning what Class-6 means.

AṢẸ 97 SPEED 74 COMBAT 66 INTEL 88 TIER S — ceiling unclassified, rising

ŞÀNGÓ'S CHOSEN · LIGHTNING DRUMMER · TALKING-DRUM CONDUIT

AMARA OKAFOR — THUNDERSTRIKE

22. Trained from age eight by her grandfather Chief Taiwo Okafor: the talking drum is not an instrument — it is a telephone, the oldest in existence, and the one who listens is Şàngó. Her ìyá'lù fires thunderclaps that shatter concrete; requests must be grammatically correct in the old tonal system — one wrong pitch calls whatever else is on that frequency. Precise, disciplined, the team's professional calm. Şàngó resonance 94/100.

AṢẸ 78 SPEED 91 COMBAT 83 INTEL 72 TIER A+

ÒGÚN'S IRON · LIVING IRON ARMOR

IKENNA CHUKWUEMEKA — IRON WOLF

Mushin mechanic-district apprentice whose family has carried Ògún's mark for fourteen generations — "the iron in his blood is not metaphor." Iron plates knit across his skin in combat; punches through Ajele "with satisfying finality"; survives being thrown over the Third Mainland Bridge ("He'll be fine. Eventually."). Blunt, loyal, allergic to nonsense.

AṢẸ 65 SPEED 55 COMBAT 96 INTEL 68 TIER A+

INVISIBLE · SHADOW AGENT · VESSEL OF ÒGÚN (71%)

ZARA OSEI — THE MIRROR

Invisible to all forms of surveillance — digital, spiritual, and Orisha — since birth. Nobody knows who she was before Lagos. Attended two Pale Council briefings undetected; her intel comes from nine nights of personal field work. First words of the series: "Then every enemy we have will be here within six weeks." Abilities: TOTAL INVISIBILITY (all detection spectra), PRESENCE ECHO (appear as someone else). Oracle dossier note: "Subject knows more than she reveals."

AṢẸ 78 SPEED 92 STEALTH 99 INTEL 95 TIER A — UNDETECTABLE; may be higher

THE KEEPER · MASTER OF IFÁ WISDOM · HANDLER OF THE FOUR

CHIEF ADESANYA ADEWALE — THE ORACLE

Born 1882 by the issue record (the tier board claims 617 years active — see §12). White-robed, sits in darkness in his Idumota compound among hundreds of overlapping sand diagrams. Drew Bayo's exact MID pattern for thirty-seven years before it appeared in the world. Staff ignites in five Orisha colours at Bayo's awakening — a thing he has never seen. "Ẹbọ mi ti gbà — my sacrifice has been accepted." Runs the Oracle Intelligence Collective (codename THE WATCHERS) with Agent KEMI and CIPHER-7.

06 THE ORISHA REGISTRY

Seven Orishas have reawakened; five are bound to the Catalyst's channels. The System monitors 401 channels in total. Registry entries below are the confirmed actives.

THUNDER · LIGHTNING · JUSTICE · KINGSHIP

ŞÀNGÓ — ỌBA ÀÁRẸ, "KING OF LIGHTNING"

Governs electrical storms, righteous fury, divine retribution. The fourth Alaafin of Oyo, ascended after his own thunderbolt struck his palace. Absolute when channelled — but does not distinguish the guilty from the bystander. He does not give his power to the angry; he gives it to the disciplined. Speaks in storms; answers the talking drum.

Vessel: Thunderstrike.

IRON · METAL · WAR · TECHNOLOGY · LABOUR

ÒGÚN — "FATHER OF IRON"

In every nail, every engine, every blade ever forged; Lagos itself was built on his back. Not kind, not cruel — iron: he does what he is used for, and he judges those who waste him. Patient as rust, honest as a blade. Vessels: Iron Wolf (fourteen generations), The Mirror (71%).

CROSSROADS · CHANCE · CHOICE

ẸŞÙ — ORISHA OF THE CROSSROADS

Sees every path at once — and now, through the Crossroads ability, so does Bayo (resonance 91: the Catalyst's strongest bond). Holds court beneath a danfo terminal in Oshodi; nothing passes through Lagos without his tax. Every hero has to pay.

WATER · HEALING · LOVE · FERTILITY · PROPHECY

ỌŞUN — "SWEET MOTHER," LADY OF RIVERS

Commands fresh water — rivers, tears, blood, rain. Beauty and grief and the space between them. The only female Orisha excluded from the original divine council; when they ignored her, the world dried. They never ignored her again. Manifests as lagoon water flowing upward, tears that heal minor wounds.

WINDS · STORMS · THE PASSAGE BETWEEN LIFE AND DEATH

OYÁ — KEEPER OF THE REALM BETWEEN

Her realm inside the Ọrun lies between life and death — where the sealed Bayo will one day spend three subjective years fighting to keep existing (Arc IV). Her wrath, corrupted at the source, powers the Dark Assembly's Mother Storm. Resonance with the Catalyst: 45 and climbing.

Also confirmed in the record: Ọrúnmìlà (keeper of Ifá, via the priesthood), and the whispered walkers of the Third Mainland Bridge — identities pending. The Orishas have refused to provide their own power rankings. The Oracle called this "tactically unsurprising."

07 THE OPPOSITION

THE DARK ASSEMBLY — "THE ARCHITECTS OF CHAOS" · ACTIVE SINCE 1420 CE · THREAT 94%

They do not want power. They want oblivion — and they are older, smarter, and more patient than any hero has been prepared for. Objective: harvest and weaponize Aṣẹ at scale; destabilize the Lagos grid to trigger a forced mass-awakening under their control. Base: unknown — suspected deep Balogun Market tunnels. Total confirmed casualties: classified.

RANK	NAME	THREAT	RECORD
I — Grand Sovereign	THE ARCHITECT · Ìgbàlódé, "The Eternal Planner"	98%	First human to reach Sovereign-tier Aṣẹ mastery; six centuries engineering the collapse of the Orisha-Human accord. Does not fight battles — writes them. True name erased from every Ifá text in existence. Powers: reality rewriting, Aṣẹ siphoning, timeline manipulation, Orisha corruption, memory erasure. "I am not your enemy, Bayo. I am your inevitable future."
II	HOLLOW KING · Ọba Aṣàlọ	84%	Former Yoruba king who bargained with the Void for immortality and lost his soul. Rules the Ègbé Òkùnkùn (Shadow Brotherhood) from a palace between realms; feeds on the Aṣẹ of fallen warriors.
III	MOTHER STORM · Èlẹ́ṣin Ọyà	79%	An Oya priestess who, when her goddess stayed silent during the Biafran War, tore open the Ọrun herself — and something else answered. Storm-power corrupted at the source; veteran Orishas look away.
IV	IRON PREACHER · Ìjọsìn Ògún	72%	Fallen Ògún Avatar preaching the Iron Verdict: dismantle all technology, raze all cities. His sermons heal the faithful; his iron constructs destroy everything else.
V — Danger: Extreme	THE MIRROR · Èdá Àfọ́jú, "The Reflection That Sees"	90%	No one has seen its true form. Has assumed the identities of seven heroes over three decades, loved their families, then destroyed everything they built. "It has already won. It just hasn't announced itself yet." (Shares a codename with Zara — see §12.)

THE PALE COUNCIL — "THE SUPPRESSORS" · 12 SEATS · THREAT 79%

The Assembly's enforcement arm and shadow judiciary. Primary monitoring floor: three storeys below street level, Geneva — white walls, blue-white screens, seventeen analysts. Lagos seat: the upper spire of Eko Atlantic, Council Chamber 7. Named figures: Director Vale (ordered the Ìmọ̀lẹ́ cross-reference: 99.7% match, then fourteen seconds of stillness), Elder Voss, the Pale Warden. Latest known vote: 9–3 to accelerate the Lagos grid-blackout plan.

THE COLLECTOR — DR. EMMANUEL ADAEZE

The Council's field harvester: eleven years, nine countries, twelve vessels emptied — with medical instruments, never weapons. His method: identify a vessel's Orisha frequency, apply counter-frequency, draw the resonance out slowly "like pressure equalising" — tired, then confused, then empty; 8–40 minutes per vessel. Against Bayo the method failed three times, each attempt returned amplified. He removed himself from the operation — "not for safety reasons. Because I don't think I am equipped to face what Lagos has produced" — and will never return to Lagos. His report becomes evidence, six arcs from now, in a tribunal that does not yet exist.

THE WEAPONS

The Orisha Vaccine — a compound that permanently severs the Aṣẹ receptors in the human nervous system. Not a cure for a disease: a cure for gods. Six weeks from completion as Arc I closes. The Oduduwa Sealing Verse — deployed in Arc III to erase Bayo mid-battle. Ajele — spirit-agent shock troops used as proximity relays for harvesting.

08 GEOGRAPHY OF NEO-LAGOS

SITE	YORUBA	ROLE	RECORD
Balogun Nexus	Ọjà Bálógún	Spiritual Nexus	The ancient market hums on two frequencies — physical trade and the hidden Orun-channel where spiritual energy pools. Ground zero of the first Ọrun-Bleed; every transaction has a double meaning.
Third Mainland Bridge	Ọnà Ẹkọ	Gateway	At 3:26 AM, when traffic stills, the Bridge becomes a crossing between worlds. The Orishas first made contact here. Şàngó's quest: hold it together until dawn.
Mushin — The Iron Quarter	Ìlà Ìjà	Origin District	Bayo's home turf. Dense, loud, real. Ògún's iron spirit runs through the mechanics, welders, and fighters. Never sleeps — rests with one eye open.
Eko Atlantic — The Glass Citadel	Ìlú Gílasi	Antagonist HQ	Pale Council domain. Towers on land reclaimed — stolen — from the Lagoon spirits; every tower a spiritual anchor extracting Aṣẹ from the soil.
Idumota — The Mirror Market	Ojú Dìgi	Black Market	Among counterfeit goods runs a darker copy trade: stolen Orisha essence, bottled and sold. The Oracle's compound and his spies are here.
Shrine of the Crossroads	Ojú-Ọnà Ẹṣù	Sacred Ground	Hidden beneath a danfo terminal in Oshodi. Ẹṣù holds court; nothing passes through Lagos without his tax.

THE COVENANT DISTRICTS

When the community's members are sworn into the Covenant (see §13), each is bound to one of the ten districts of the Awakened: Mushin, Yaba, Surulere, Ikeja, Ajegunle, Idumota, Balogun, Makoko, Èkó, Bariga.

OTHER CANON SITES

Paul Street, Mushin — the workshop where Bayo apprenticed under his mother. National Theatre — where Amara busked, and where Şàngó's storm-spirit first tore through. The old Odeon shell — the dead-end alley where everything began. Eko Hotel — the Collector's suite. Geneva — three floors below street level, where Lagos is watched.

09 THE SAGA MAP — ELEVEN ARCS, ONE LEGEND

ARC I: THE CATALYST — "AWAKEN, O CITY" (ISSUES 01-09 · FIRST FOUR PUBLISHED FREE)

ISSUE	TITLE	WHAT HAPPENS
#01	AWAKEN, O CITY (48pp)	The Balogun Bleed at 2:47 AM. Bayo returns a Class-6 strike tenfold; the Aṣẹ System initializes for the first time in recorded history; Geneva redlines; the Oracle's 37-year vigil ends; the Four stand together — not a team, four strangers who survived the same thing. Cliffhanger: the Oracle's staff burns in five Orisha colours at once.
#02	ŞÀNGÓ'S DAUGHTER (52pp)	Amara's drum-code lore; the Collector arrives to harvest; Bayo's first ability (Èṣù's Crossroads — 847 futures, one path where nobody dies: walk straight at him); the harvesting mechanics revealed in clinical horror; the Collector's shaken final report: "SEND THE ARCHITECT."
#03	IRON IN THE BLOOD (44pp)	The iron in Ikenna's Mushin workshop starts answering to its name; the Patience Trial; what iron remembers; Zara's night inside Pale Council walls; the Orisha Vaccine — what it actually does.
#04	THE CHOSEN FOUR (56pp · Arc I finale)	Truths surface (the Oracle has not said everything); the Lagoon Vision; the Four converge on the Nexus as the Ọrun tears open; the Architect makes the opening move — not an attack, an offer : the one thing each of them wants most, priced at the only thing they cannot afford. Arc I ends with a choice, not a victory.

THE PUBLISHED HORIZON — ARCS II-V

ARC	TITLE · ISSUES	SHAPE
II	The Iron Trials — "Seven Forges of Ọgún" (05-13)	Seven impossible trials across Lagos. Trial VII: Bayo doesn't pass it — he breaks it, resetting its conditions permanently. Ọgún laughs for the first time in centuries. Unlock: RESONANCE.
III	The Thunder War — "When Şàngó Weeps" (14-22)	A supernatural storm threatens to sink Lagos Island; "Purple Igbale" levels an Eko Atlantic tower — visible from Abuja. Then the Oduduwa Sealing Verse: Bayo vanishes mid-battle. Three of the darkest issues in the run.
IV	The Shadow of Oyá — "Death Cannot Hold What Lagos Made" (23-31)	Three subjective years inside Oyá's realm, fighting to keep existing. He walks back into the battle like it isn't there. The rain stops. "I missed this city." Unlock: TRANSCENDENCE.
V	The Catalyst Protocol — "One City. One Strike." (32-40)	The Grandmaster revealed: AYÓLÉ, a human who consumed enough stolen Aṣẹ to evolve beyond both realms. His plan: the Orisha Divorce — severing Àiyé from Ọrun worldwide. Bayo must run the Catalyst Protocol: every Orisha at 100%, at once.

Arcs VI-XI: sealed. The declaration stands at eleven arcs and roughly nine hundred pages; the System will decrypt the later movements when the community has earned them. Next release: Issue #05 opens Arc II — countdown live on the site (target: 1 December 2026).

10 THE CHRONICLE — TIMELINE OF THE EMERGENCE

WHEN	EVENT
1420 CE	The Dark Assembly becomes active. Casualty record: classified.
1882	Birth of Adesanya Adewale, the future Oracle (per Issue #01; the tier board disputes — §12).
1987	The Oracle sees something — the last time his eyes were clear before the awakening. He begins drawing one MID pattern in sand, daily, for thirty-seven years.
Biafran War era	An Oya priestess, refused by her goddess, tears open the Ọrun herself. Mother Storm is born.
~11 years ago	Chief Taiwo Okafor teaches eight-year-old Amara that the drum is a telephone. He dies; she keeps practicing.
YEAR 0	The veil thins. First documented citywide Aṣẹ surge; seventeen individuals manifest trace resonance overnight; the Oracle Collective opens covert monitoring beneath Eko Atlantic.
YEAR 0 + 3 months	The Architect convenes the first Assembly council; a 12-seat Pale Council is chartered as its enforcement arm.
YEAR 1 · 2:47 AM	The Balogun Bleed and Bayo's awakening. Codename CATALYST assigned within hours; Agent KEMI deployed.
+ minutes (Geneva, 3:04 AM Lagos)	Council instruments return NO MATCH; Ìmọ̀lẹ̀ Protocol cross-reference hits 99.7%. "Wake the Architect."
+ 6 weeks	Iron Wolf's awakening in an underground fight ring; PRIORITY OMEGA bounty within 48 hours. Amara's Balogun surge (47 stalls; 3 enforcers hospitalised). Zara surfaces — already active, allegiance classified.
Arc I close ("NOW")	The Assembly's extraction device goes live; the Lagos grid destabilises; all four converge on Eko Atlantic. The Architect makes the offer. Arc II begins.

The six-week clock: Zara's opening prophecy — "every enemy we have will be here within six weeks" — and the Vaccine's six-weeks-to-completion run on the same fuse. This is not a coincidence. Nothing in Lagos is.

11 LEXICON — SPEAK LAGOS

TERM	MEANING
Aṣẹ	The divine power to make things happen; the current everything runs on. Spoken: "so be it."
Ọrun / Àìyé	The spirit realm / the physical world. The veil between them is thinning.
Orisha	The divine spirits of Yoruba cosmology — ẚàngó, Ọ̀gún, Ẹ̀ṣù, and hundreds more. Reawakening.
Ọrun-Bleed	A tear in the veil. Purple-gold light. Generators die in sequence. Run.
Ajele	Spirit-agents that pretend to have bodies but haven't committed to the lie.
MID	Manifestation Identity Descriptor — a vessel's unique divine fingerprint.
Ìmọ̀lẹ̀-Àárọ̀	"Morning Light" — the Catalyst classification. One instance in 4,000 years of records.
Ifá	The Yoruba divination system and its four-millennia body of knowledge.
ìyá'lù	The "mother drum" — lead talking drum; the oldest telephone in existence.
danfo	Lagos's yellow minibuses — fast, loud, held together by faith and duct tape.
NEPA	The old name for the power company. "NEPA don take light" — blackout. Again.
wahala	Trouble. Palaver. Lagos's most renewable resource.
area boy	Street-corner operators — unofficial toll collectors, occasional muscle, always watching.
Purple Igbale	Bayo's signature strike: ẚàngó's lightning fused with Ọ̀gún's iron.
Orisha Vaccine	The Council compound that severs human Aṣẹ receptors permanently. A cure for gods.
Ẹ̀ káàbọ̀ / Àṣẹ!	"Welcome" / the affirmation that seals a thing said. Both are used on the site as greetings to members.

"Ẹ̀ni tó bá jẹ̀ orí ẹ̀lòmíràn, kò ní jẹ̀ orí ẹ̀ni." — One who eats another's head will not eat one's own.

12 CONFLICTING RECORDS — PENDING ORACLE RECONCILIATION

CATALYST OS preserves every source. The following entries disagree across the archive. These are live mysteries — deliberately excellent fuel for community theory-craft.

CR-01 · THE TWO ARCHITECTS

The Dark Assembly file records THE ARCHITECT as male-voiced, six centuries old, the first human Sovereign, true name erased from every Ifá text. The Pale Council's own dossier describes their "Architect" as a 31-year-old woman who built the Orisha Vaccine and "finds this work genuinely regrettable." Two beings sharing one title? A successor? A mimic? Note which Assembly member specialises in perfect identity theft — and note that the Architect reviewed the power-tier list and removed two entries. We do not know why.

CR-02 · THE TWO MIRRORS

ZARA OSEI operates as THE MIRROR — undetectable since birth, allegiance classified, "knows more than she reveals." The Dark Assembly's Rank V is ALSO called THE MIRROR (Ẹḍá Àfọ́jú) — a perfect mimic that has already replaced seven heroes and "has already won." The Assembly org-map marks the villain Mirror as FEARING something on the heroes' side. The record does not say these are different beings. The record does not say they are the same.

CR-03 · THE ORACLE'S AGE

Issue #01: "a man who has been alive since 1882" (144 years). The tier board: "617 years active." Both are printed under his name. Either the Collective's records are wrong, or "Chief Adesanya Adewale" is the current name of something much older.

CR-04 · AMARA'S TWO LIVES

The issues record AMARA OKAFOR: drummer's granddaughter, National Theatre busker, taught the drum-telephone at eight. The Orisha registry and tier board record AMARA IBRAHIM of Victoria Island: former aerospace engineer, 12,000V. Same thunder, two biographies. The Oracle's log praises her precision in both.

CR-05 · IRON WOLF'S NAME

Character file: Ikenna CHUKWUEMEKA. Registry: Ikenna OKAFOR (which would make him Amara's kin). Fourteen generations of Ògún's mark are attested either way.

CR-06 · THE AWAKENING'S SHAPE

The Chronicle logs Bayo's first manifestation as "survived a transformer explosion, levelled a city block." Issue #01 shows the alley beating and the Balogun Bleed. Eyewitness accounts of divine events are known to disagree with instruments. Choose your canon — or explain both.

[CATALYST OS — RECONCILIATION POLICY]

These records remain open by design. Community rulings, retcons, and reveals belong to the authors of Arc II and beyond. Argue accordingly.

13 THE COVENANT & COMMUNITY SYSTEMS

The website is not a brochure — it is the universe's front door, and its community machinery is live. Everything below already works and can anchor your community programme.

THE COVENANT OF THE AWAKENED

Every person who joins the movement is sworn in by ceremony: the Oracle records their name, and they receive a permanent sequential member number and a deterministic in-universe identity — a covenant name built from a title (Keeper of / Bearer of / Child of / Voice of / Shield of / Walker of) and an epithet (Ìmọ̀lẹ́ · Àrá · Irin · Ojiji · Odò · Iná · Afẹ́fẹ́ · Òkúta · Ìjì · Owurò · Àṣẹ · Ọ̀nà), bound to one of ten Lagos districts. Example: Awakened № 12 — "Keeper of Ìjì" of Makoko. Rejoining always returns the same identity: the number is theirs for as long as the city stands. Privacy is part of the honour — the registry stores only a hash, never the email, and the public Wall of the Awakened shows in-universe names only.

RITUALS & REWARDS ALREADY LIVE

SYSTEM	WHAT IT DOES
The Àṣẹ ritual	Typing "ase" anywhere pulses the site gold: "Àṣẹ. The city hears you. ✦"
Milestone badges	FIRST LIGHT → AWAKENED READER → DEEP READER → ÀṢẸ INITIATE → COVENANT SEALED → THE CHOSEN (all four issues), alongside the field-activity badge case
Universe Pulse	Live aggregate counters: Covenant members, readers, pages read, heroes revealed
The paginated reader	Every page shareable by URL (#read-i2-p3); full-text search of the whole comic (Ctrl+K); reading position follows members across devices
Hero Quiz & games	"Which Orisha are you?", ÀṢẸ Battle Simulator, Oracle Terminal, ciphers, war-room dispatches
RSS + glossary	/feed.xml for subscriptions; in-reader Yoruba lexicon tooltips for newcomers

COMMUNITY PROGRAMME STARTERS

1. Address members by covenant name and number — in newsletters, Discord roles, comment features. The database is the source of truth. 2. Theory bounties on the §12 Conflicting Records (CR-01/CR-02 are the deep wells). 3. District chapters — ten districts make ten natural community teams for events and read-alongs. 4. Reading campaigns — THE CHOSEN badge (finish Arc I) as the community's rite of passage before Issue #05 lands. 5. Share rituals — the covenant card and per-page deep links are built for social posts.

ATTRIBUTION

Original fiction by the CatalystVerse team, Lagos. Quote short excerpts with a link to the reader page; do not reproduce full issue text. This dossier may be shared freely within the community for organising, recruiting, and theory-craft.

[CATALYST OS — SIGN-OFF]

Dossier complete. 14 sections. All published canon indexed; six conflicts preserved under seal; the later arcs remain encrypted until the city is ready.

You now hold everything the Oracle would show a new operative on their first night. Build the community the way Lagos builds everything — loudly, stubbornly, and together.

The city hears you. Àṣẹ.

"This city has been holding its breath for nineteen years. It chose tonight to exhale. It chose you to be here when it did."
